SNI-A-BAR ROYAL BARON

This is Sni-a-Bar Royal Baron, chief stock bull at Elcona Farms. He was many times a first prize winner as a calf and yearling and was undefeated as a 2-year old at all major 1940 shows. His calves furnish abundant evidence of his top ranking ability as a sire. Two of them will be sold in this sale by Elcona Farms.

ELCONA ROYAL BEAU. This handsome roan calf shows the smoothness, depth, thickness, and ruggedness which characterize all of Sni-A-Bar Royal Baron's offspring. His dam is a granddaughter of Collynie Royal Barrage, Jim Russell's famous herdsire, whose record of siring outstanding sons and daughters is unsurpassed anywhere on the continent.

A heifer out of the same dam was bought by Maxwalton Farms for $340.00 in our sale there last November. Here is a fine prospect, capable of heading any good herd.

Footnote: Elcona Rosewood A 3D. Sni-A-Bar Royal Baron, the sire of both Elcona's entries in this sale, is a double grandson of famous, imported Baronet. He, his sire, and his grandsire were all International first prize winners. He won first in a class of thirty-seven senior bull calves the first time he was shown. As he developed, he not only maintained but improved his standing, so that as a two year old he was undefeated in class and was champion more times than he was defeated.

The dam of this heifer is a daughter of Edellyn Gold Charm, grandson of Collynie Royal Leader. It would be difficult to write a more impressive pedigree than she carries. Individually she is worthy of her famous ancestry. A full sister sold for $450.00 last November in our sale with Maxwalton Farms to Hollis Hanson of Connerville.
